

1853

U.S. Constellation is broken up at the Gosport Navy Yard in Norfolk.
Some of her timbers may have been incorporated into a new sloop
of war christened the Constellation.
(The latter remains afloat in Baltimore Harbor)

1853-55

USS Constitution serves as flagship of the African Squadron, patrolling the "Guinea Coast" against slavers